“ Delbert you was such a big part of our lives. I loved and still love you so very much. When I had Jack Daniel you was living with us and helped me so much. I wasn't suppose to lift over 5 lbs and since he was over 10 lbs at birth you was always helping me out. You was my rock and I never forgot that. I guess you are all together again with you being the last one to pass. I loved you all! ”

“ I spent most of my teenage years at your house with my cousin Summer. As much trouble as we got into back then, you were always there — steady, patient, and looking out for us. You guided me through some hard times when I didn't have many people to turn to, and I'll never forget the advice you gave me. You even took the time to teach me things like how to change lawn mower blades — simple moments that meant a lot. ”

I'll always remember you taking us to the movies in that old van. As loud as it was, now it feels like one of those sweet memories that stays with you forever. Thank you for being part of my life. You'll truly be missed.
