“ From spending some summers with my second family to long weekends these past years I always enjoyed cousin Ricks company. Horse shoes and poker games that always had a cold beverage involved. From him teasing me as a Hoosier. I'm not sure he realized how much I learned from him about southern folk. I've been thinking of everyone down there from Keneth and Casey Aunt Chris and all the Brothers,Sisters. And my hope is that peace will be found someday with Ricks passing. Cousin John Boy

Thank you. I know dad loved to pick on everyone of us. As he used to tell me an my brothers an even my best friend Tiffany (I don't like none of uns anyways) he loved spending time with you too. every time you would be coming in. He would tell me and start laughing while getting the horse shoes rdy the drinks an cards. I think because he knew he was gonna win and he could say. If you wasn't a Hoosier fan you would have beat him. My daddy was the best

“ Ill never forget the time I caught my first fish. I started yelling daddy ,Daddy I caught a Bastard I caught a bastard daddy.. we got home that evening and dad goes Casey Ann tell your mommy what you caught I said I caught a little bastard mommy. She looked at me as dad's laughing standing behind me. She said casey hunny that will be the last bastard you will want to catch.. dad told that story so many times that I will forever re-live that memory. I miss you Daddy. Forever your lil girl.
